OFFICE ASSISTANT III – County Attorney's Office

NATURE OF WORK:

Positions in this class will be responsible for providing the full spectrum of administrative support activities in a department, for serving as office coordinator in a smaller office, or for performing specialized and technical work in a section of a large department.

TASKS PERFORMED REQUIRE THE WORKER TO:

(1) Provides the full spectrum of administrative support activities to an administrator or two or more professionals and involves organizing and controlling the administrative support workflow for the administrator or professionals. Employees are also responsible for providing general administrative assistance to the supervisor relating to the department's program thus relieving the supervisor of administrative details. In offices with sizable workloads, positions may be assisted by positions at lower levels with this position responsible for coordinating the work; or, (2) perform specialized and technical work in a section or division of a department which involves in-depth research of laws, rules, or administrative procedures to resolve unusual or difficult problems assigned by a supervisor or referred by an employee in a lower level position. Employees in positions at this level serve as technical advisor to other employees in the work unit and are able to perform the duties of other positions in the work unit. Duties will also include training new employees in lower level positions and may involve preparing non-routine technical correspondence for the supervisor's signature.

Works independently, under the general policy direction of a supervisor and is reviewed for the effective coordination of assigned activities and for the quality of services provided to the supervisor or the public. Some positions may be responsible for training lower level assistants in this office.

Employees in this classification have extensive contact with the public in person, over the telephone, or in writing when providing administrative assistance to the supervisor and in performing the other duties of this position. This requires explaining the policies of the department to the public in a tactful and diplomatic manner.

Work is performed in an office environment and occasionally at other designated sites.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS:

This is the third of a three-level series. Positions at this level are distinguished from positions at the lower level by the responsibility to organize and control the administrative support workflow or technical activities in an office, the level of administrative assistance provided to a professional or administrator, more comprehensive knowledge of laws and technical nature of work pertaining to the department which are used to resolve problems, and the responsibility for coordinating assigned activities.

REPRESENTATIVE EXAMPLES OF WORK: (Only major tasks are identified for most positions; refer to position description for detailed listing of duties)

As a secretary to two or more professionals, organizes and schedules the office support activities for the professional in order to assist the professional in thorough accomplishment of professional matters; prepares a wide variety of legal documentation including letters, memos, and litigation documents for professional's signature; maintains appointment calendars; ensures that proper documents are placed in files and that files are ready for professional's review; works closely with professionals, other support staff, other departments, and contact with the public.

Performs related work as assigned.
