IN THE ELEVENTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT FLATHEAD COUNTY, MONTANA

In Re Eleventh Judicial District Court ) Rules of Practice ) Order on Review of Filings by Self Represented Litigants )

In light of an increasing number of self-represented litigants appearing before the Court with improper and incomplete paperwork which results in a significantly disproportionate amount of the Court's time and resources being devoted to these cases, to the detriment of the remainder of this Court's extreme workload the Court enters the following Standing Order:

It is hereby ordered that a law and motion hearing date, contested or non-contested, will not be set in a case in which both parties are self-represented without the filings and documentation having been reviewed by the Self Help Law Center for completeness, consistency, and readiness for hearing. It is not the role of the Center to provide legal advice but to review documentation of self-represented litigants to ensure their matters are complete and ready for hearing.

Dated this 12th day of January, 2016.
