We also understand that in addition to any other civil or criminal remedy available under law for the commission of perjury, the court may set aside the judgment (Decree), or part of the judgment (Decree), if the court discovers, within five years from the date of entry of judgment (Decree) that a party has committed perjury in their disclosure.

3. Neither one of us were harassed, coerced or threatened by anyone in connection with entering into any agreement relative to our assets, debts, maintenance or our parenting plan.

4. We waive the right to appear personally in court to present testimony as to any matters and request that the Court enter the proposed Final Decree by affidavit in lieu of a hearing before this Court.

We request that the Court Order the support we have indicated in our Parenting Plan which differs from the calculation. We request that support be ordered as set forth in our Parenting Plan for the following reason:

6. We understand that regardless of this Affidavit, the court may require a hearing for any reason the court considers necessary.
