ANIMAL SHELTER ADVISORY COMMITTEE VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

The Board of County Commissioners is seeking citizens who are interested in serving on the Animal Shelter's Advisory Committee. This five-member committee advises the Board of Health concerning the operation of the Animal Shelter, provides public education to issues involved in the control of stray dogs and cats, and serves in an advisory capacity to the Flathead County Health Department's Director and Board.

There is currently one unexpired term to fill on the committee that would conclude on December 31, 2016. The candidate could then reapply to serve a full three-year term.

Letters of interest should be received no later than 5:00 p.m. on September 7, 2016 and should include any details that the candidate would like the Commissioners to consider along with contact information. Letters may be sent to:
